5 下の英文を読んで、次のページの(1)~(4)の問いに答えなさい。

“All our dreams can come true, if we have the *courage to *pursue them.” This is one of my favorite words by *Walt Disney.

Walt was born in 1901. He liked drawing and art. He started drawing when he was little. When Walt was a high school student, he made *cartoons for the school newspaper. He also *took classes at an art school at night. In 1919, Walt found a job at an art *studio. During this time, he learned about *animation. He wanted to make his own animations, so he started his first *company and made short movies there. The animations were popular, but his company had some problems. He had to close his company.

In 1923, Walt started another studio with his brother. Walt *created a popular *character. However, there was a big problem. Another company took his character and his *co-workers away from him. But Walt never *gave up. He created a new character again. He created an animation movie of this character with sound, and many people loved it. Then Walt created many new characters. They moved and talked in the movies. All of them were cute and became popular.

After that, Walt decided to make a long animation movie. Some people around him said it was difficult, but he believed that he and his co-workers could do it. They finally finished making the movie in 1937. The movie became very popular. Walt got a lot of money. He used the money to build another movie studio and to make more animation movies.

Walt also had the idea to create a large park because he wanted to make many people happy. In 1955, he opened his first park in America. The park became famous and popular, and it is still one of the world’s most popular places to visit on vacation. Later, Walt had the idea to build a larger park in another American city. He worked on the plans but died before the park opened in 1971.

Walt Disney died on December 15, 1966, but his dreams still *live on. His movies and parks are loved by many people around the world. His company *has been creating wonderful movies.
